

MICHAEL CHARLES MAIBACH

THERE IS A GOD

Those who don't Believe in God
Perhaps are not in touch.

We have our friends,
We have our earth,
We have so very much.

Yet even friends can disappoint,
And health can slip away.
Our planet can ferocious be,
And storm, and flood, and sway.

There's really just one constant,
One everlasting true.
It is that God exists for me,
And yes, exists for you.
