INVISIBLE NO MORE

They are all around us,
Just think and look and see.
Invisible people everywhere,
Who do not need to be.

The hotel maid,
The driver of the bus,
The waitress taking orders,
Kindly serving us.

The keeper in the shop,
The teller at the bank,
Flight attendants, secretaries,
Remember to always thank.

Your elderly neighbor,
Does she have Christmas plans?
The Sunday school teacher,
In need of extra hands?

Bethink your long lost cousin,
The priest who changed your heart,
Thank the teacher that you loved,
The volunteer who did his part.

Everyone has feelings,
We all possess a Soul,
Forget yourself as habit,
Help another play their role.

As you teach your children lessons,
And guide them on their way.
Include in all their learning,
How to make a person's day.

They are all around us,
Just think and be aware.
Invisible people every place,
Make sure they know you care.
