

MICHAEL CHARLES MAIBACH

WITH MY ONE HEART

With my two hands
I protect you - for sure.
With those same hands
Our bond I'll secure.

With my two legs
I show you city and farm.
With those very same legs
Rescue you from harm.

With my two eyes
I see your face ever fair.
In those same eyes
You see how I much care.

With my two ears
I listen and learn,
About your hopes
And your worldly concerns.

These corporal pairs -
Each play their own true part.
But God's plan was singular
When He gave just one heart.

And with my one heart
I pledge love and true grace.
And with that same heart
Our life together I trace.
