

MICHAEL CHARLES MAIBACH

HUMBLE LEADERSHIP

'Tis now the season
We are engaged,
To choose a leader,
To take the stage.

We choose a person
To take the reins,
So much at stake -
So much to gain.

What we see lacking
Among these two,
Is what our Lincoln
Showed how to do.

He asked of us
Our best at heart,
"Unite the nation,
And do your part"

Of all his virtue
And ability,
Foremost for sure
His Humility.

Read his words
His famous speeches,
His correspondence -
To hearts he reaches.

Let's ask of those
Who would be President,
To temper words
With humble sentiment.

MICHAEL CHARLES MAIBACH

Forget yourself
And cold ambition,
Become a servant
With humble petition.

Choose now trust
And give it voice,
Our Nation will make
The wisest choice.

And what is winning
If done with boast?
A humble leader
We wait to toast!

Copyright (c) 2016