

MICHAEL CHARLES MAIBACH

"WORTH DEFENDING"

We share these colors with the French,
Our histories hold us near.
With challenge now before us,
Will our leaders guide us clear?

Their trumpet sounds are yet to prove
The measure we expect.
How many more will have to die
Before they stand erect?

When nations fall, and some they do,
One reason is their end.
Their leaders see no virtue
In what our fathers did defend.

Americans are asking
Who will keep our torch alight?
For Americans know deep inside
Our cause is worth the fight!
