TRUE GREAT MEN

We do believe
That true great men,
Do their best
In times born in.

They hone their talents,
Apply them right -
Lead the people
In noble fight.

And they do the same
For those they love -
They guard them safe,
As from Above.

There are among us
These true saints,
God sends them here -
Their hearts He paints.

Washington,
And Lincoln sure -
Churchill, too,
Heroes who endure.

We pray today,
We search and wonder,
Who will lead?
Beyond this thunder?

As we seek today
Our heroes new,
Ask of yourself
Is this now for you?

The cup is passed
From age-to-age -
It's before us now
On history's page.

Men always ask
Who's bell does toll,
Look no further
Than your own soul.
