

MICHAEL CHARLES MAIBACH

CONDITIONAL LOVE

Unconditional love -
What you deserve,
While my love for you
Is full of reserve.

If only I'd known you
As a sweet little girl,
Then I could have seen
How you slept in a curl.

If only we'd met
When we were both small,
No other sweet memories,
No past loves at all.

I wish I had not
Loved at first sight,
Not known in an instant
That you were just right.

I regret all those things
That we did as one,
Those memories for me
Are the man I've become.

If only your heart
Were so much less kind,
Your lips were less full
Someone else I might find.

You're much too endearing
Your affections too pure,
Love thrives on small doubts -
About you I am sure.

MICHAEL CHARLES MAIBACH

I regret those sweet words
Said just for we two,
Those words for me now
We're my last 'I love you'.

As you can see clearly
We're not meant to be,
We've too much in common
So ignore my heart's plea.

Move smartly ahead
And get on with your life,
Overcome your perfections,
Then I'll make you my wife.

Copyright © 2016