

MICHAEL CHARLES MAIBACH

IN HEAVEN

When we go to heaven -
You and me,
If I get there first
I'll wait for thee.

No matter how sweet
Heaven seems to be,
Improve it will
When it's you plus me.

Salvation is what
We call it here,
Eternal bliss -
Life absent fear.

But my only fear
In celestial life,
Will you in heaven
Remain my wife?

The gods may promise
To meet each call,
But to have you near
I'd forego it all.

We may be flawed
Through and through,
But the love we share
Is timeless true.

MICHAEL CHARLES MAIBACH

Glimpses of God
We've seen in life,
The talisman
Above the strife.

One glimpse of God
We quietly know,
Is the love we have
And won't let go.

Copyright (c) 2016